DANCE OF LIGHT

CHRIS AND STEVE ROCKS

The 'Dance of Light' collection originated in a fascinating journey that Chris and Steve Rocks made earlier this year. The brothers flew to Iceland and travelled around the 'Golden Circle', a mountainous region of ice and snow, sketching and photographing the vast tracts of landscape in preparation for painting their next inspirational collection. Since their return they have created this stunning series of compositions, celebrating what they felt to be '...a great demonstration of the immense power of nature.'

THIS ATMOSPHERIC IMAGE CAPTURES BOTH THE VAST SCALE OF THE LANDSCAPE AND THE EXTRAORDINARY QUALITY OF THE DISTANT LIGHT WHICH ILLUMINATES IT. WHILE THE SETTING OF THIS SEMI-ABSTRACT SCENE APPEARS AT FIRST GLANCE TO BE NOCTURNAL, THE MAJORITY OF THE CANVAS EXPLORES A VARIETY OF WHITES AND MAUVES. THIS 'PREVAILING LIGHT' LENDS THE PIECE AN INTRIGUING AURA OF MYSTERY, AND DIRECTS THE EYE RIGHT TO THE CENTRE OF THE DISTANT HORIZON.

THE AURORA BOREALIS IS ONE OF NATURE'S MOST BEAUTIFUL AND MIRACULOUS SIGHTS. WHEN THESE SWATHES OF LIGHT BEGIN TO DANCE ON THE NORTHERN SKY THE SOUND, THE RAW ENERGY AND THE SHEER SPECTACLE IS DAZZLING. THIS MAGNIFICENT TRIPTYCH REPRESENTS AN ARTISTIC TRIBUTE TO WHAT IS SOMETIMES CALLED 'THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH'.

INCANDESCENT LIGHT RADIATES FROM THESE MESMERIC EXPLORATIONS OF THE CONTOURS OF THE LAND. THE DRAMATIC CONTRASTS AND STUNNING INTENSITY OF THESE IMAGES CREATES A VORTEX THAT PULLS THE VIEWER IN TO THE CENTRE OF THE PIECE WITH THE IRRESISTIBLE POWER OF AN ERUPTING VOLCANO.

The stunning abstract images that these extraordinary brothers produce are inspired by the overwhelming power of nature. While exploring the effects of light on land, sky and water, they aim to capture a moment in time, a unique and therefore unrepeatable experience. Their intention is to make the viewer aware that in art, as in life, everything is constantly changing. The passion and intensity of each piece reflects both their individual artistic aims and their personal journey through life, and has brought them considerable critical acclaim and media attention, including features in national art magazines and TV coverage. Their high profile has led to a number of prestigious corporate commissions and they now have collectors all over the world.
