celebration of colour
by danielle o'connor akiyama

celebration of talent

Danielle creates luminous floral masterpieces that vibrate with life, energy and colour, whether through a riotous party of flowers or a single magnificent bloom. This world-renowned Canadian artist has received numerous awards for her paintings which she describes as “sanctuaries for the soul.” Her deceptively loose, impressionistic style disguises the intricacy of her brushwork and the stylish formality of each composition. She has always believed in the importance of each and every brush stroke, and in order to gain a greater understanding and technical skill she studied sumi-e, Japanese brush painting; her unique fusion of eastern and western artistry has led to her works being highly prized by art collectors from both sides of the Pacific.

original paintings

Danielle's light and airy canvases portray each exquisite bloom in a stunning palette of cyans and magentas. But despite the vibrant colours and impressionistic style there is never a sense of crowding; her alluring images introduce an almost tangible sense of tranquillity into any setting.

Danielle's work has always turned heads, but her new statement collection makes a whole new impression on the viewer. These exhilarating florals are overlaid with a stunning new high gloss resin which makes each exotic flower fairly dance off the canvas. "While colour and composition are at the root of my work, I have learnt that the finishing touches can make a huge contribution to the overall effect of a piece. Highlighting each image with this wonderful new gloss means that they hold and reflect the light in a completely different way, and has made me look at my own work through new eyes."
