Their dazzling blend of pulp fiction, high culture and ironic wit has made the Connor Brothers two of the biggest stars of contemporary art.

Their interest in undermining our casual acceptance of cultural norms is reflected in The Connor Brothers' extraordinary background. They themselves began their career masquerading as innocent twins who had emerged traumatised from a Californian cult and were struggling to make sense of the world through their art.

Their fictional persona was designed to protect their real personal histories but their success led them to break cover and they revealed their true identities. They retained their famous pseudonym however, reminding us to question our assumptions about other people, and ourselves. The Connor Brothers have been widely featured in the media; there have been sell-out shows at galleries all over the world, and their work has been shown at such diverse settings as the V&A, the Penguin Collection and Banksy's Dismaland. At Sotheby's Contemporary Art Online Auction in May 2021 The Bestest and Most Expensivist Painting in the History of Art which they executed in 2020 sold for over £44000 – which was 300% more than the estimate.

MR. BRAINWASH

"AN ODE TO OUR DIGITAL AGE, THIS COLLECTION MODERNIZES A RENOWNED WARHOL-ESQUE STYLING WITH A CRYPTO CONVERSION." (MR. BRAINWASH)

The new collection from Mr Brainwash is a present-day tribute to Andy Warhol using an unexpected piece of source material – the cryptocurrency symbol for bitcoin. This increasingly ubiquitous image has been in the headlines many times over the years and on frequent occasions it has been criticised by Jordan Belfort, AKA the Wolf of Wall Street, who said it had been used to brainwash investors! All cultural images and controversies are of interest to Mr Brainwash whose work consistently reinterprets the worlds of both high art and popular culture for his own artistic, or sometimes mischievous, purposes. These bold and dynamic images encourage us to view the digital age through a different lens, and to acknowledge that in the presence of Mr Brainwash, art is everywhere – there are no rules!

"MY PAINTINGS REPRESENT A DIARY OF HAPPY DAYS AND WONDERFUL MEMORIES THAT I HOPE OTHERS CAN RELATE TO AND ENJOY."

The beautiful new collection from Sherree Valentine-Daines takes us from afternoons in flower-filled meadows to the lawns of Ascot in the company of exquisitely dressed socialites and enchanting children. Despite the difference in subject, what each piece shares is a sense of a genuinely memorable day that we are being invited to enjoy as it recalls some of our own happiest memories.

Sherree's expert handling of contrasting colours and textures has given these paintings an arresting authenticity, while her impressionistic approach creates a strong yet subtle sense of movement and vitality. Inspirational and beautifully composed and executed, this collection demonstrates why she has been officially voted the UK's leading modern Impressionist.
